As dynamic as the community she serves, Congresswoman Shelley Berkley has represented the families of Nevada's First Congressional District since 1999 and is currently in her sixth term as a Member of the U. S. House of Representatives. Working to meet the needs of the rapidly growing Las Vegas Valley is a key focus of Shelley's work in Congress. Her priorities include jump starting the economy; creating jobs; helping families stay in their homes; securing more resources for education and transportation in southern Nevada; increasing access to affordable, high-quality healthcare for America's families; developing clean, alternative energy sources; fighting the proposed Yucca Mountain nuclear waste dump; protecting Social Security; and strengthening American alliances abroad to work toward international stability and peace.
